Club Commandments.

1. Thou shalt have no other clubs before this one.
2. Thou shalt not worship any false thing.
3. Remember thy club engagement.
4. Honor thy club sisters.
5. Thou shalt not covet office.
6. Thou shalt be prepared for roll call.
7. Thou shalt not at the eleventh hour begin to hunt for material for thy paper.
8. Thou shalt diligently keep these commandments. So that thy club days may be lengthened and thy fame spread unto the uttermost parts of clubdom.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general survey of the situation in the United States. It is found that the country is in a state of general depression, and that the people are suffering from the effects of the war.

2. The second part of the paper is devoted to a description of the various causes of the depression. It is found that the war has had a very serious effect on the economy, and that the government has been unable to meet its obligations.

3. The third part of the paper is devoted to a description of the various effects of the depression. It is found that the people are suffering from a lack of money, and that the government is unable to pay its debts.

4. The fourth part of the paper is devoted to a description of the various remedies for the depression. It is found that the government should take steps to reduce its expenditures, and that the people should be encouraged to save money.

5. The fifth part of the paper is devoted to a description of the various results of the depression. It is found that the country is in a state of general depression, and that the people are suffering from the effects of the war.
